

EUROPARC
F E D E R A T I O N

The EUROPARC Federation is Europe's biggest network, supporting and representing the work of Europe's Protected areas. A member organisation, with interests in nature conservation, sustainable tourism development, capacity building and European environment policy development and implementation, good strategic and specific communication is central to our work.

JOB VACANCY - COMMUNICATION OFFICER

A Communication Officer, with an interest in nature and a passion for parks, needs an understanding and willingness to work in an NGO culture.

Proficient written skills in English are essential and good knowledge (B1 or higher) in German is desirable. Additional European languages are advantageous.

Experience in the production of publications and press work, as well as the management of website and social media content are essential. Close liaison with members through the creation of an online newsletter are all also essential.

We are looking for an innovative and creative thinker who is adaptable and responsive to change. They must work well under pressure and be able to juggle several projects at once. They are generally outgoing and comfortable meeting new people. Due to the nature of the work they must be accurate, flexible, enthusiastic, and responsible Operating from the headquarters in Regensburg the Communications Officer will contribute to the small dedicated team.

-Salary will start from 2500 Euros monthly gross, depending on age and experience.
-This will initially be no more than a 2 year contract.

-Job description and details can be obtained from our website;
<http://www.europarc.org/uploaded/documents/859.pdf>

-CV with letter of interest detailing their relevant experience by 12pm (CET) on Monday 13th February.

-Interviews will be held in Regensburg during the week commencing 27th February.

-Applicants should submit to office@europarc.org