UNESCO WORLD NATURAL HERITAGE

Wild woods of world-class

The Ancient Beech Forests of Germany are worldwide unique. They are extraordinary and irreplaceable and recognized as 'UNESCO World Natural Heritage'.

AREAS IN GERMANY

A fascinating journey into wilderness

The beeches appear to plunge down from the chalk cliffs in Jasmund. In Serrahn they bend over moors. Their reflection can be seen in the lakes of the Grumsin. In Hainich they rise from a sea of blossoms. In the Kellerwald they press their gnarly forms into the barren hillsides.
